The company claims it is home to India's first women underground mine managers and has set up the country's first and second all-women underground mine rescue teams. "Our vision is ambitious yet clear – to significantly accelerate this momentum and achieve 30 per cent diversity within the next five years.

The growing number of women choosing careers in mining and metallurgy is a testament to this shift – one fuelled by our industry-first, people-centric policies and a wealth of opportunities designed for holistic professional growth, company's Chairperson Priya Agarwal Heubar said. Hindustan Zinc is the world's second-largest integrated zinc producer and the third largest silver producer.
